

Danyell Dyslin was born in Kansas but moved to the Texas Panhandle in Elementary. She spent most of her childhood in one of the small communities just outside of Amarillo. She met her wonderful husband her first year of college, and they've been married for 7 years now. Danyell started with 7 star as a volunteer and has been with our organization for three years. She is currently pursuing a degree in Finance and Marketing and has extensive work experience in marketing, advertising and strategic planning. In her free time, she enjoys spending time at her family ranch or finding a new adventure.
