

Courtne Stevenson started with 7 Star in July of 2016 as the Volunteer Coordinator. In August 2018 she was named the Executive Director. She is a native of Amarillo, Texas. She has worked with horses and children most of her life in different capacities.

Courtne has studied at the University of Tennessee, University of Memphis, Arkansas State University and Trevecca Nazarene University. She has Bachelor's Degrees in Business Management, Human Relations and Public Relations with a Minor in Marketing. She is also a former Miss Rodeo Tennessee.

She has a certification from Eagala as an Equine Specialist and is also as a Certified Equine Massage Therapist.

Courtne believes that horses are a great source of healing for people with any kind of needs be it physical, emotional or mental. She sees her job as an opportunity to help others through her love for horses. She says that it is a blessing and a calling to serve the community that she is so proud to live in.
